

The Gift of Love: 2 Elderly Ladies, 1 Unforgettable Gesture!

It was my 57th Birthday on April 6th, and I was heading to Prasanthi Nilayam to seek Baba's blessings from abhaya CCL Campus at 6AM.

That's when Lakshmi (65), who serves at abhaya Campus, Ananthapuram, did something incredible. She prostrated before me and handed over a few currency notes, saying, "Swamiji, i am not rich, but this is what I wish to offer with love"

Narasamma (65), a single lady serving at abhaya Home, Ibrahimpatnam. She is like a mother taking care of me for the past couple of years. She has also sent a donation on the eve of my 57th Birthday... saying she wanted to give with love. No blood relation, just a beautiful bond of gratitude and care.

These two women humble me with their selfless giving. It's not about how old or rich we are or how we live, but all about how we give.
