

Sunday Thoughts: The future lies in their hands! emphasizes the pivotal role children play in shaping tomorrow's world. As they grow, they absorb knowledge, values, and skills that will shape their decisions and, in turn, contribute to a better society. Therefore, investing in their education, well-being, and empowerment is crucial for a brighter future. - Balachandra